2019 Tasmanian Training Awards summary

The Tasmanian Training Awards are conducted annually by Skills Tasmania, Department of State Growth. The Department is committed to the development of a high quality, efficient system of vocational education and training and workforce development. The commitment represents a major contribution to the development of competitive advantage for Tasmanian industry.

The Awards recognise the achievements of apprentices, trainees and vocational students who strive for the highest standards of knowledge and skills within their industry. They also recognise industry, employers and training organisations dedicated to providing high quality training and improving the skills of the workforce in this State. The Awards offer finalists the chance to gain personal satisfaction and the prestige of being part of an elite group who unequivocally represent the State's best in vocational education and training.

Winners from the Tasmanian Training Awards (in aligned categories) have the opportunity to compete with other states and territories to be named the best in Australia at the 2019 Australian Training Awards which will be held in Brisbane, in November.

Conditions of entry

Nominees must:

- apply for only one category and must meet all eligibility criteria. When an application does not meet the eligibility requirements, it will not be considered by the judging panel.
- agree to notify the Tasmanian Training Awards immediately should there be a change in circumstances with regard to your training or employment.
- be prepared to attend interviews in person as required and, if selected as a finalist, attend the presentation dinner in Hobart on Friday, 6 September 2019.
- abide by the decisions of Skills Tasmania whose decision shall be final on all matters pertaining to the award. No correspondence or justification for any decision shall be required of Skills Tasmania.
- acknowledge that should you win the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Student of the Year Award you must be able to represent Tasmania at the 2019 Australian Training Awards in Brisbane. You will be required to take leave from work or study commitments for the week 17 November to 22 November, including the awards dinner on Thursday, 21 November. Travel, meals and accommodation costs for the Australian Training Awards are covered.
- be prepared to undergo all preparations that Skills Tasmania considers necessary for the 2019 Australian Training Awards, including a professional development workshop in October.
- acknowledge that by entering the Awards, finalists and winners agree that Skills Tasmania may use non-confidential details, profiles, training details and/or photographs/videos for any publicity purpose pertaining to vocational education and training including, but not limited to, Tasmanian Training Awards, Australian Training Awards and the promotion of vocational education and training and workforce development.

Part 2: Application and selection processes

How to complete your application

- Review the eligibility requirements to ensure you meet them and are nominating in the correct category.
- Read the conditions of entry and agree to these conditions.
- Complete the application at Part 4. Your application needs to include the nomination form, a short overview and responses to all selection criteria. Note a word limit applies:
 - Applications are to be in 12 pt. Arial font and must be within the word count applicable for the overview and each criterion.
 - Up to five (5) single A4 page attachments are permitted (this is optional). These pages can include testimonials, copies of certificates, etc.
- Should you win the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander of the Year Award your original application will be submitted to the Australian Training Awards for consideration. Applicants will not submit a new application or have the opportunity to rewrite it so make the most of the word limit and ensure you are putting your best application forward!
- Submit your application: Applications can be submitted via email, post or hand delivered. Keep a copy for your reference. Do not bind or laminate your application.
- If you are submitting your application via email please name the document with your name and the award you are applying for. For example; Sam Smith – Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Student. Once you have completed your nomination form, overview and selection criteria, and collated any supporting documentation, attach all documents in an email to jacqui.maclaine@skills.tas.gov.au
- The overview and selection criteria should be the focus of your application; however any relevant evidence may be provided so long as it does not exceed the word and page limits. No multimedia items or discs will be accepted with applications.

Selection of finalists

- Applications for this award close on Friday, 7 June 2019 at 5:00 pm. No late applications will be accepted.
- Applications will be assessed against the selection criteria to shortlist applicants.
- All applicants will be advised in writing as to whether they have been shortlisted.
- Skills Tasmania reserves the right to reject an application, or rescind shortlisting, in the case of any non-compliance.
- Shortlisted applicants for the Apprentice of the Year Award will be required to attend an interview in Hobart the week beginning Monday, 22 July.
- The decision of the judging panel is final and no appeals will be entered into.

Overview and selection criteria

Section A: Overview (limit 300 words)

Provide a short overview covering a description of the qualification you enrolled in, your registered training organisation and employer, as well as your reason for choosing this industry and training pathway. Note: information in the Overview will not be considered or used for judging purposes, but may be used as your summary throughout the Awards process.

Section B: Selection criteria

Applicants will be judged against the following criteria

Criterion 1: Career and study achievements

Criterion 2: Team and communication skills

Criterion 3: Ability to be an ambassador

Criterion 4: Community engagement

Addressing the criteria

In your application, you must present your information in a way that clearly addresses each award criterion. Therefore, please respond to the criteria in order, under the given heading. Judging panels will be looking for evidence of how your training has contributed to your career and study plans, to the development of your skills and your achievements to date, as well as any way in which your training may have helped you to achieve other qualities and pursuits.

In developing your application, you may wish to take into account some of the considerations outlined below each criterion. These considerations are not additional criteria, but are provided to give clarification of what may be relevant to include when writing against the criteria.

Criterion 1: Career and study achievements (limit 400 words)

Consider things such as:

- Why did you choose your course?
- How has it changed or impacted on you?
- What have you gained from it?
- Have you had to address any challenges that have impacted on your training?

Criterion 2: Team and communication skills (limit 400 words)

- Consider any skills you have developed through your training, such as:
- What have you been able to tell others, students, mates, etc about your training?
- What do you like about working in a team setting?
- What traits do you think are important to positively influence others?

Criterion 3: Ability to be an Ambassador (representative) for training in Australia (limit 400 words)

- Provide examples where you have taken a leadership role inside or outside training/work.
- What other activities have you been involved in where you have been a representative?
- How would you describe the quality of your training?

Criterion 4: Community engagement (limit 400 words)

- You may wish to include information about:
- How are you connected with your community/extended family?
- How has your training impacted on your community?
- What qualities do you have, or activities you have been involved in, that you feel would be useful in your role as Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Student of the Year?
- Your achievements in areas other than study and work.
